

We can talk about the council and our voices are being heard

Like to get involved and help make decisions

To listen to other people's views and opinions

Learn about equality in relation to disability. Learn what our rights are!

I can meet new people and learn new things

I like coming to talk about school and different things

Share advice from other forum members

To make new friends and meet new people

Feel Independent and confident by coming to the forum